LESSON HANDOUT
Lesson 13

BIBLE TRUTH
Wisdom is a gift from God.

LEARNER GOAL
I can analyze the text for what it shows me about God's gift of wisdom and rightly apply that to my own life.

BIBLE VERSE
The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge. Proverbs 1:7

Solomon Prays for Wisdom
1 Kings 3:5–15;
Proverbs 3:1–12

REFLECTIONS

OPENING REFLECTION Think of the wisest person you've ever met. What was he or she like, and what do you think made him or her so wise?

1 KINGS 3:5–9 What was it that Solomon asked for specifically, and why did it matter so much to the Lord? What does this look like in our own lives?

1 KINGS 3:10–15 Why do you think God gives so much to Solomon? What can we learn from this about the role of seeking God's will in our lives?

PROVERBS 3:1–12 What's one verse or phrase from this section of Proverbs that really sticks out to you about what godly wisdom is? Why is that, and why do you think it sticks out to you right now?

FINAL REFLECTION Analyze the text for what it shows you about God's gift of wisdom and how it applies to your life right now.
