Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For several years now we have been supporting seminary students as they make their way through the program to become ordained servants of the church. In June of 2014 we had seminarian Greg Bauch come to LCR to visit, teach and preach. He has now graduated from seminary and received a call to a congregation. We are pleased for Greg and his family as well as the congregation that he will serve. We are blessed to have had a small part in supporting the work of the Lord in equipping pastors for His church. Pastor Bauch's final letter to the congregation follows.

Your in Christ,

Pastor Nielsen

Dear saints in Christ,

I write this knowing I've passed all classes of my final quarter at seminary! It was truly an amazing time learning from the great theologians of our church body. With this in mind, I ask you to encourage men, young and old, to be God's ministers. There's been a shortage of pastors to fill calls the past few years and those congregations in need want nothing more than God's chosen servant to preach and administer the sacraments every Lord's Day to their faith and salvation.

That being said, I want to thank you for your incredible support the past years. There are many blessings attending seminary, yet also many anxieties—especially concerning family provision. But you alleviated those anxieties in a most gracious way, sending gifts that literally went from your pocket to our children's mouths. It is your God-given desire to help that allowed me to focus on studying and know that my wife and children were provided for... in this I am extremely thankful. How do pastors-elect make it through years of training without leaving their families destitute? By Christ's mercy and your willingness to love without reservation. Thank you once again for your generosity!

As an update to my status, I was called to Ascension Lutheran Church in Madison, Tennessee, just outside of Nashville. The placement is really ideal for what Amanda and I were hoping for: towards the south near a large city. In an interesting historical note, the Tennessee Synod was the first American Lutheran synod to declare quia subscription to the Lutheran Confessions, so I hold those territorial bragging rights! We'll be moving the first week of June so we can get settled before my ordination and installation on June 19. Preaching that day will be Rev. Dr. George Black, who many of you know married Amanda and me ten years ago. He was also the first pastor who I recall encouraging me to attend seminary, which makes his attendance very special. On a side note, if anyone ever vacations in the Nashville area, please swing by... we'd love to see you! After all, it's not every day you can meet up with someone you help put through seminary and hit up the Grand Ole Opry!

In the name of Christ Jesus, our crucified and resurrected Lord,
Greg, Amanda, Gideon, and Claudia
