"Survival of the Weakest"

"But he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me." 2 Corinthians 12:9

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On November 24, 1859, Charles Darwin published a paper entitled, "The Origin of the Species." In it, Darwin provided his explanation for the observations he had made while sailing among the Galapagos Islands on his boat, "The Beagle." In summary, he concluded that individual species evolved into various forms as the stronger members of that species survived and the weaker members were eliminated. It was a process he called "natural selection" and it was based on the principle of the "survival of the fittest."

"Survival of the fittest" is a logical explanation for why some species seem to survive and prosper while others do not. 'Survival of the fittest' can also apply to survival in a highly competitive world where survival depends on the ability to produce and where there's always someone with greater strength or skill to take our place.

It is truly remarkable to consider just how contrary the ways of God towards man are to the ways of man towards his fellow man. With God, it is not "survival of the fittest" but "survival of the weakest." St. Paul put it like this, "He [Jesus] said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me." (2 Cor.12:9).

Rather than commending the healthy, strong and domineering, Jesus commends the weakest and most vulnerable and actually uses weakness as strength. Jesus does not single out the mighty, strong and the 'fittest' for His kingdom. Rather, He announces to the lowest and the least the good news that He is come to bless them. "Blessed are the poor in spirit;" "Blessed are the meek;" "Blessed are the merciful."

As Paul's commentary on Jesus' Beatitudes, he writes, "God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong." (1 Corinthians 1:27). Maybe this helps us understand why St. Paul goes on to say, "For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses...For when I am weak, then I am strong." (2 Cor.12:10).

Incredibly, it is through weakness that God has accomplished His greatest work. The power of God is carried out in the weakness of the cross. So utterly contrary to the Darwinian instincts in us, God humbled Himself and became obedient unto death even death on a cross. It is in this weakness unto death, that God has "highly exalted" His only-begotten Son.

What does this all mean for us? It should mean that we are not to pursue our survival by being stronger and fitter than our competitors and rivals. Rather, we are free to be the weak and lowly servant, trusting that our Lord has already assured our survival by His weakness. As human beings who have been recreated in the image of Christ, we are fittest when we are weak, for in our weakness, we are imitating Jesus and able to love our neighbor as He has loved us.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Nielsen

Notes from your Deaconess

Summer, 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters of LCR,

Some endings and conclusions bring sadness, confusion, and uncertainties, but our Sunday worship ends with peace, and anticipation for how God will lead us in the coming days. At the conclusion of our weekly services together, we depart from one another after hearing a Benediction from the Pastor. These words of blessing which occur at the end of all five settings of the Divine Service come from Numbers 6:24-26. The Lord gave these words to Moses for Aaron and his sons (the priests of Israel) to speak to the people. God told Moses that by these words they would put His name on the people. Martin Luther added this final piece of the service. The Catholic service before had not included it. This blessing is not a prayer, but performative language – as God's word does what it says. The Pastor faces us and speaks (or sings) to us with the Lord's words. So he sends us from the place where we have heard from, been forgiven by, met with, fed by, and tasted our Lord, with the Lord's name on us, His face shining on us, and with His peace. Thus we bring Christ to the world in our families, workplaces, schools, stores, and wherever we find ourselves.

Right now I plan to lead a Saturday morning Bible study on July 14, (8:30-10am at church) but am uncertain of other dates yet. There may be occasional other kinds of gatherings to discuss books and the like, so keep in touch! Email, phone, or check with me at church to find out any new plans. Remember to check out www.womenoflcr.wordpress.com and feel free to join the book discussion there at any time. (Women only, if you please.) Consider coming to the summertime "Evening with the Family" on Fourth Fridays, July 27 and August 24. We have some informal time for a story, games, crafts, fellowship and then some singing together.

Our daily lectionary readings from the Old Testament during July and August bring us through the many years of the people of Israel beginning with the fall of Jericho under the leadership of Joshua, through the period of the Judges of Israel (concluding with Samuel), and the first kings of Israel – namely Saul, David and Solomon. This covered some four or five hundred years. In the New Testament, we'll read from the book of the Acts of the Apostles, and epistles (letters) written by Paul to the Galatians and the Corinthians. The early church wrestled with many of the same issues that the Israelite people did in the Old Testament, and that we do today. Every time we read these passages we see anew how God worked and works through his people.

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself...Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us." (2 Corinthians 5:17-20)

Under his mercy,
Sharon M. Conover

THANK YOU FROM REV. AND CINDY SCHUMACHER

Dear Pastor and Members of Resurrection,

Thank You for your prayers and for supporting our missionary service to the Lutheran Church of Ghana. We look forward to returning to Ghana and continuing our teaching at the Lutheran Seminary.

We enjoyed the trip to Mission Central and personally thanking many people who work supporting the mission of God all around the world. Now we are in the middle of two weeks of travel. The journey began in Illinois, then a visit to the LC-MS International Center, followed by attending and presenting at Concordia Catechetical Symposium in Wisconsin. The subsequent week will be the highlight of our summer. We will spend five days with our children and grandchildren at camp CILCA, a Lutheran camp in central Illinois. Cynthia's family is gathering there to celebrate her mother's birthday.

The Decker family has been gathering very few years since 1995 to join in a camping adventure. The five sisters have the preparing and cooking for 30+ people mastered. Sightseeing, game playing, swimming, and fellowship are enjoyed by all the family members. Even though three of our nieces are getting married this summer, the young adults requested that we join for our bi-annual reunion. It is wonderful to be part of a family that enjoys continuing the camping fun that Cynthia's father instill in his children and grandchildren. Vernon, my father-in-law, served as a scout master for over 50 years and his love of the outdoors has continued for generations.

Thank you again for supporting us and the family of faithful men who are preparing for the pastoral ministry in the Ghana Lutheran Church. God has blessed us with our family in America and also with our Ghanaian Lutheran Church family.

God's Blessings,

Rev. Steven and Cynthia Schumacher

"We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and His might, and the wonders that He has done." Ps. 78:4

JUST FOR LAUGHS

Nothing But the Truth

High soprano Karen Phillips once sang in the choir, but for several services she was in the congregation and not the loft. When asked why she no longer sang, she explained, "One Sunday when I was home sick with a cold, several folks asked if the organ had been repaired."

Offering Time

Freddie, in church time, watched as the ushers passed the offering plates. When they neared the pew where they sat, the boy piped up, "Don't pay for me Daddy, I'm under five!"
